

GOING TO THE MARKET—THEN AND NOW

Here are some vocabulary words and expressions you will hear in the recording:

colorful	credit card	“This, too, shall pass!”
interesting	germs	some semblance of normalcy
fresh	wipe off/wipe down
canned	countertop
challenging	contagious disease
scary	careful
different	an eye for...
necessary	pantry
stay-at-home order	spoil
social distancing	leftovers
crowds	in danger
frozen	ill
besides	spread
hand sanitizer	kind

Did you understand?

1. Why did Filomena love going to the market when she was little?
2. How often did she go to the grocery store when she had her own household?
3. In 2020, how did things change?
4. How does she prepare to go to the market (grocery store) now?
5. What does she do when she comes home to make sure she doesn't bring dangerous germs to her family?
6. What is her outlook on how things will be in the future? Is it positive or negative?